The Rev. M. H. Reid and his wife, who are about to start for the Upper Congo River, Africa, upon missionary work, made addresses at the Broome Street Tabernacle on Sunday night. Mrs. Reid began her work for the church in the Tabernacle several years ago and left a remunerative position to become a mis-

An order was received at the Navy Yord from Washington yesterday, directing that the cruiser Atlanta made ready for service without delay. She will be ready in about four weeks, and will be sent to Europe. The street-stand ordinance recently passed by the Aldermen was approved by Mayor Hewitt. It virtually places the street stands under the control of the The New-Haven Railroad runs trains a mile a min-nte between Mt. Vernon and the Grand Central Station for a part of the way. The funeral of George R. Chipman, former treasprer of the Metropolitan Opera House, will take place te-day at the Little Church Around the Corner. Mr. man's family has been left almost entirely destiand arrangements are already being made to ge up a big benefit for them.

Major George W. McLean, Tax Receiver, yesterday turned over to the City Chamberlain $945.679 16, making a total of $8,235,841 91; $85,450 was also paid into the City Treasury from Excise receipts. With the coming of light frosts suburban milkmen have begun encasing their cans with heavy woollen blankets. A customer suggests that they fear the

The West End Presbyterian Church, at One-hundredand-fourth-st, and the Boulevard, of which the Rev. J. Balcom Shaw is pastor, on Sunday received fortytwo members. This makes 171 members since the church was organized last February. Recorder Smyth to-morrow will name another day on which the sentence of death pronounced against Adolph Reich, the wife-murderer, now confined in the Tombs, will be executed. John Connolly and William Brady became engaged in a quarrel in front of No. 98 Washington-st. on April Brady's head struck a coal box, and he died as a result of the injury. Connolly pleaded guilty yesterday before Judge Cowing to a charge of manslaughter in the second degree and was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. Joseph W. McCann, a compositor on "The Mail and Express," yesterday performed the astonishing feat of setting 2,127 ems of solid nonparell in one hour on a wager of $25 with Joseph Haley, of "The Times," that no compositor in this city could set 2,000 ems The feat was performed in "The Sun" composing room.

BROOKLYN. This is the second day for the registration of voters in Brooklyn. The next and last day for registration in Brooklyn will be October 23.

Josephine Lauri, age seven, of No. 30 President-st., took down her father's loaded revolver yesterday and in some way accidentally discharged it and the bullet entered her stomach, inflicting what is likely to be a fatal wound. Her father is an Italian grocer.

Only five designs have been submitted for the new Soldiers and Sailors' Monument in the form of a memorial arch at the Plaza entrance of Prespect Park. The time for competition expires to-morrow.

Judge Barnard decided yesterday in the suit of Super-visor John Y. McKano, of Gravesend, for reinstatement in the Kings County Democratic General Committee, to sustain the demurrer interposed by the defendant, holding that the courts could not aid the plaintiff in holding that the cours could not add the panish securing restoration. The case will be appealed.

A petition from the truckmen for permission to resume their old stand in the vicinity of the City Hall was presented to the Aldermen yesterday with several thousand signatures of taxpayers.

In the proceedings in behalf of Ludlow W. Valentine, by guardian, to recover from Dr. Herman T. Richardt the property worth $15,000 belonging to the estate of the boy's mother, Mrs. Catharine A. Valentine, which he secured from her by undue influence before her death last winter, Judge Barnard decided yesterday that Dr. Richardt must surrender the property. He has sold if He has sold it.

A MEMORIAL TO DR. W. L. WHEELER. Miss Tillinghast, of No. 3 North Washington Square, designed an artistic window for a memorial of Dr. nont Wheeler, of the United States Navy, to be placed in a chapel at Mannsville, Jefferson County. The subject is: "Christ Healing the Blind," and the window has a central piece and two appendants. It was sent to Mannsville last night, and will be put in position Thursday, when the chapel will be consecrated.

BEAUTIFUL DISPLAY OF DRESS GOODS. The revived interest this season in Indian and other Oriental embroideries will draw special attention to the exhibit of Armenian and Indian embroideries now shown by James McCreery & Co., Eleventh-st. and Broadway. The recent paving of Eleventh-st. gives this house the finest carriage front of any store in the city. The number of carriages on Eleventh-st shows that customers already appro clate the luxury of a street that is at all times free from crowding by carts and drays. In the Incia department, which is now attracting fashionable shoppers, are shown table covers, flounces, slippers, bracket falls, squares for sofa pillows and other articles embroidered in gold and colored silks on cloth and satin. The metal used in this work will not tarnish with time like other metal work. An antique table cover marked 1797 recently sold at this department was as bright as if the gold had just been worked with the reedle. The tinsel embroidered slippers are extensively utilized as cuffs and house dresses, and flounces embroide on satin in odd rich colors are used as mantel dra-pery and for other purposes of household decoration. There are some beautiful pale blue satin table covers embroidered in gold with a touch of pale rose color The silk department of this house is too well known to old New-Yorkers to require a single word of praise. It has been the habit of this house to keep an unrivalled stock of silk fabrics of the finest and richest qualities as well as standard wear. The new armure-royal silks are shown in all the new colors of the season in plain and brocaded pat-terns of the new artistic designs sent over this season from the Lyons house. The most delicate evening shades of gold colors, pale reed greens and reseds tints, pearl white and the new rose called by the French jus de cerise are shown in stately flower patterns in antique effect and in solid color in peau le sole and satin, and in stripes with all-over pattern, in brocades which unite all these fabrics, and in medley of rare colors in one goods. One of the newest features of this season is the importation of pentes or lengths of peau de sole with a wide pattern of brocade crossing the bottom, a little set figure wrought through the body of the goods and one or more narrow bands at the top. Three of the lengths are used to make a dress with fifteen yards of plain silk, the pentes constituting the trimming of of piain silk, the pentes constituting the trimming of the costume. An especially rich and attractive ar-ray of black silk goods is a feature of the season. Trimmings were never more beautiful to an ar-tist's eye than now. Embroideries wrought on cloth in self and Cashnere color are a feature of the im-portations of trimmings. Embroideries on gauze, on lace and tissue in many-tinted beads and pearls are shown for evening dresses, besides an immense assortment of every variety of stylish standard trim-mings of the hour.

NEWS FROM THE SUBURBS.

JERSEY CITY. The City Board of Assessors met yesterday and fixed he tax rate for next year at $29 80 per $1,000.

Ex-Congressman Hardenberg, president of the Hud son County National Bank and a member of the Boar of Finance, returned yesterday from a four month trip in Europe. He is in good health and spirits as reports that he enjoyed his trip.

Several prominent Germans are making arran ments to establish a home for aged and indigent Ger mans. Raymond Roth, who died a short time ago left $20,000 for the establishment of such a home, a $10,000 more will be raised by popular sub-ce ption. Counsellor Daly declares his intention of challenging the panel of jurors because John Reid, one of the Jury Commissioners, is also a school trustee in Hoboken, although the Jury Commission law provides that a commissioner shall not hold any other office.

Patrick Coffey, who murdered Agnes Smith, his mistress, last summer, will be placed on trial to-day.

NEW JERSEY. Sigfried Cronheim, the manager of the variety the atre at Hoboken, who was arrested on Sunday for persisting in giving a performance after the police warned him, yesterday waived examination, and his bond was increased to $500. Cronhelm is now under indictment. Manager Jacobs has also been indicted for giving Sunday performances.

STATEN ISLAND.

The corner-stone of the new parochial school in Carroll place, New-Brighton, was laid yesterday with impressive services conducted by Arch-Bishop Corrigan. The exercises were begun by a short address on the "Necessity of a Christian Education," delivered by Father J. J. Dougherty, the specessor of Father Drumgoole, at Mount Loretto.

LONG ISLAND.

The steamers Sterling, Nat Strong, Hudson, Portland and Amaganett have caught 2,342,000 menhaden off the Long Island coast. The fish are said to be more abundant than for several years. At Long Beach the oil tanks are clogged with the fish.

ALONG THE SOUND. ALONG THE SOUND.

An absurd rumor has gained publicity to the effect that Philip Palledeno, the condemnet murderer, who was hanged in Bridgeport on Friday, escaped paying the penalty of his crime through a trick of his spiritual adviser, and that he is now secreted near that city. As such a trick could not be played in a Connecticut prison, and as a dozen reputable doctors examined and pronounced Palledeno dead after he was cut down, the authors of the story will have cause to seek another field for a live sensation.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

William McNeil, son of Robert McNeil, of Port Chester, who dangerously wounded himself with a pistol on Friday night, was still living yesterday and was thought to be doing well, with a probability of recovery unless blood poisoning should set in, no attempt having been made to extract the ball, in consequence of its proximity to the heart.

The Circuit Court and Court of Oyer and Terminer convened yesterday in White Plains. Owing to there being no quorum of the Grand Jury that body was adjourned until this morning, when some thirty with nesses will be examined in the case of Frank Brouty, who killed with a double-barrelled shotgun Constable Thomas Woods, at Mount Vernon, last summer. James Pulcastio and Robert Bernadi, Italians, about ripropers old, got into an alterystion at their boarding-house, No. 5 Clinton-st., Yonkers, late on Sunday night, and Pulcastio pailed out a stilletto and plunged it into Bernadi's abdomen, inflicting a probably fatal wound. He also cut and slashed him in the breast. Pulcastic escaped.

DISCUSSING "EVANGELISTIC TRAMPS." was a lively discussion on a paper on the question: "Are professional evangelists a necessity for revival work in organized churches in The writer answered the question in the negative, and dprecated the great abundance of loud-mouthed " evangelistic tramps." thought if church members would aid their pastors as in the good old days, and the pastors would preach the gospel, which some of them were forgetting to do, there would be no need of evangelists. The discussion developed an agreement with the article read, on many points, but with the added opinion that there were some evangelists who were of great assistance to pas-

Resolutions of condolence and sympathy were adopted on the death of the Rev. John Johns, the former paster of the Beekman Hill Church in East Fiftieth-st.

THE END OF A LONG IMPRISONMENT. A successful effort to secure a Governor's pardon for Michael Gorman, who was sentenced to imprisonment for life in 1856, for murder in Brooklyn, has been made, and he will be set free to-day, after thirtytwo years of imprisonment. On the night of July 4, 1855, Gorman lay down to sleep in the open fields where now is Fort Greene Park, and while there Charles Johnson and another man aroused him. quarrelled with them, and in the contest between them Gorman drew his pocketknife and stable Johnson in the chest and abdomen, and he died the next day.

Gorman was sentenced to be hanged on December 21, 1855, but Governor Clark was persuaded to com have been made with every Governor since to secure his pardon. Gorman is now sixty years old. He will be provided for by James Dolan, an officer in the Court of Sessions, Brooklyn, who has been unremitting in his efforts to secure the pardon.

A CIRCULAR THAT LOOKS LIKE A COMMAND. A Brooklyn correspondent complains of a circular which advertises a new lock-box for mail purposes. The circular has been left at a number of houses, and is headed: ""Postal Laws and Regulations." The circular says: "We respectfully request the people of this city to comply with the Postmaster-General's request in providing lock-boxes for the reception of all mail, and by so doing greatly facilitate the 'Car-riers' Delivery System.'" Reference is made in the circular to certain articles of the postal laws and regulations, and the correspondent construes the circular as an implied order. He states that the post office authorities of Brooklyn disclaim all knowledge of the order implied, and he finds fault with the box itself.

DEATH OF COMMISSIONER VOORHIS'S SON. Expressions of sympathy for Police Commissioner John R. Voorhis were pientiful at Headquarters yesterday, when a telegram from him announced the death of his only son, George, at Sparkill, N. Y. The Commissioner was called out of the city suddenly on Saturday by a message informing him that his son was dangerously sick with typhoid fever. The young man had gone to a quiet country place for a brief season of rest with his wife and little children only to contract a fatal disease. George Voorhis lately had taken charge of his father's stair-building business, at Bethune and Greenwich sts.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION'S BUDGET. The budget of the Board of Education, which will be presented for the approval of the Board to-morre before it is sent to the Board of Estimates, calls for $4,108,150. Among the several items are: Teach ers' salaries, $2,895,000; janitors' salaries, $146,600; evening school teachers, $120,000; clerks and employes, $4,000; nautical school, $27,800; supplies $180,000; fuel, $108,000; gas, $22,000; rental of school buildings, $55,000; manual training, $25,000; repairs, furniture and sanitary work, $200,000; corporate schools, $102,000; free lectures for workingmen, $10,000.

A LEG CUT OFF BY A STREET CAR. Thomas Brooks, a young man whose home is at No. 344 East Forty-seventh-st., started to cross Sec ond-ave, at Thirty-fifth-st, yesterday, and was run over by car No. 23, which was going at a rapid rate. It was said that the elevated railroad columns provented the driver from seeing Brooks in time to stop the car. One of the young man's legs was so nearly cut off that amputation in Bellevue Hospital was necessary. He may die. The driver of the car was locked up.

A NEW WEST SIDE BAPTIST CHURCH. The congregation of the Rivers de Baptist Church which now holds its meetings in the chapel of the Methodist Home in Tenth-ave., between Ninety-second and Ninety-third sts., will lay the cornerstone of its new church on Saturday at 3 p. m. The church is to be built in Tenth-ave. opposite the Methodist Home. The Rev. Malcolm MacGregor, the paster, will conduct the services, assisted by the Rev. Drs. Bridgman, Edward Judson, R. S. MacArthur and others.

INSPECTOR BYRNES BACK AT WORK. Chief Inspector Byrnes had so far recovered from rious sickness yesterday that he was able to go to his den at Police Headquarters and give his persona attention to the never-ending hunt for thieves. His face showed few traces of suffering, and nearly two weeks of sickness had not taken away the vise-like grasp of his hand.
